

Employee Experience

Giving you the tools to guarantee an excellent workplace experience for your employees

Increase business productivity with our end-to-end collaborative solution for your workplace. From employee mobility, through to dynamic virtual teams, we understand the importance of ensuring your staff have the tools they need to get the job done, regardless of where they are.

A tailored user experience

Not every member of your team will have the same requirements when it comes to the tools they use in the workplace. While some will prefer to work at the office and pick up a phone or send an email when they need to get hold of an individual, others will expect to work remotely or on the move and will therefore require different collaboration tools such as video conferencing, instant messaging and more.

Your employees expect to be able to use similar tools that they use in their personal lives, whether that be smart phones, video calls, or instant messaging. We can provide all of these tools with the added security and archiving needs that your business requires.

Schedule meetings in seconds

In today's connected world we no longer have to schedule face-to-face meetings weeks in advance. The collaboration tools available now mean we can schedule and join meetings within seconds.

What may start off as a simple instant message (IM) asking a colleague for help, may turn into a voice or video call, which could result in screen sharing or quickly booking out a meeting room to use Webex Boards. If further help is needed it's simple to bring additional individuals into the meeting, regardless of whether they're in the same office, company, or even time zone.
